

Agoda.com Malaysia Independence Day SALE: from USD 20 per night!

SINGAPORE (August 8, 2012) - Agoda.com, Asia's leading hotel booking site and part of Nasdaq-listed Priceline Group (Nasdaq: PCLN), today announced specials deals on hotels in Malaysia to celebrate Malaysian Independence Day.

This year marks the 55th year of Malaysian independence, and to help promote travel to this fantastic multi-cultural country, Agoda.com has secured deals in some of the country's best destinations.

Independence Day - known locally as Hari Merdeka - falls on Friday 31 August, a long weekend for Malaysians and a great time to experience Malaysian culture. In Kuala Lumpur, international visitors can get into the celebratory spirit by watching the Merdeka Parade and military flypast. A hotel in Kuala Lumpur near Merdeka Square makes the perfect base for shopping, sight-seeing, and accessing KL's cosmopolitan dining and entertainment scene.

The Independence Day long weekend is also a great opportunity for travelers to hit the beach.

Malaysia's got some of the prettiest coastlines in Asia, including the idyllic beaches of Langkawi and Pangkor, the historic ports and waterways of Melaka, and Port Dickson's picturesque Blue Lagoon.

Travelers looking to escape the heat can head to the green hills of the Cameron Highlands, or visit Kota Kinabalu for some downtime with nature. Kuching is also a fun destination for a long weekend, offering a delicious mix of local foods, historic sites, markets, museums and a dazzling waterfront promenade.

Agoda.com has Malaysia hotel deals in each of these destinations and more, valid for the Independence Day long weekend. To secure a hot deal, click on one of the below hotel deals, or visit [link to the landing page] to view even more deals across the country.
