

ASCOTT DEBUTS ‘CITADINES CONNECT’ AND ‘PRÉFÉRENCE’ HOTEL BRANDS IN THAILAND

Bangkok, Thailand, 23 December 2019 - CapitaLand’s wholly owned lodging business unit, The Ascott Limited (Ascott), is introducing two new lodging brands - Citadines Connect and Préférence - to Thailand.

Préférence Hotel in Bangkok, scheduled to open in 2021, will be one of the unique collections of ‘Hotels de Charme’ boutique properties that carries the Préférence label, following the opening of The Tamarind Resort Nusa Lembongan Bali, Maison Aurelia Sanur Bali and Liu Men Melaka in Malaysia. Each Préférence hotel is selected for their luxury discreet charm, heritage hotel, authenticity and alluring service, offering subtle inspiration and unique experiences for its guests.

Préférence Hotel in Bangkok will be located by the riverfront of the famous Chao Phraya River, with its own boat pier and cross-river ferries to access riverside attractions like Asiatique, Lhong 1919, The Jam Factory, IconSiam, and at the same time provide easy connection to the Bangkok skytrain and land transport systems. The property will offer 43 luxurious guestrooms, unique event spaces, restaurant, fitness centre and rooftop bar with swimming pool overlooking the riverfront.

Citadines Connect Thonglor Bangkok, scheduled to open in 2022, will complement the fast growing network of Citadines Connect business hotels globally, including Citadines Connect Fifth Avenue New York and Citadines Connect Sydney Airport. The Citadines Connect brand will cater to frequent travellers who are constantly connected, offering a chic living experience. With its unique “Refresh & Go” concept, the contemporary hotel will be equipped with its own ‘Refresh and Recharge’ spaces that come with private napping pods with USB charging points, “Grab and Go” counters offering food and beverage options and daily necessities, smart room features and thoughtful services to enable guests to connect with others and experience the city.

Citadines Connect Thonglor Bangkok will be located close to the BTS Thonglor Skytrain Station, with 170 rooms, a rooftop garden, gymnasium, co-working space and an infinity pool overlooking the city's skyline. It will have easy connectivity to shopping malls, restaurants, office buildings, trendy cafes and entertainment outlets.

Mr Brian Tan, Ascott's Country General Manager for Thailand & Laos, said:

As one of the largest international lodging owner-operators in Thailand, we are thrilled to introduce the first Pr  f  rence and Citadines Connect hotels to Bangkok. These are two very unique brands that will serve our increasingly diverse and sophisticated clientele base well. Both will be beautiful properties situated in strategic locations and will further strengthen our push into the short stay, hotel segment. We look forward to their respective openings in the next couple of years."

With the addition of the two new properties, Ascott will have 23 properties in Thailand, which will comprise of serviced residences and hotels (including properties under development) and a total inventory of 4885 units.

Love being rewarded for travelling? Ascott Star Rewards, the world's first loyalty program in the serviced residence industry offers full flexibility when it comes to earning and redeeming points.
