

Bata does the Community Service by Supporting « Do Good for Children » Project

Bata the global brand of shoes and leader in shoe's manufacturer, recently come in Trad province to support the project « Do Good for Children ». This project was hosted and organized by the Veteran Organization of Thailand came for a study trip about Veteran organization work. It permits to develop education and health of children who lack of opportunities. During this event, Bata gave shoes to 300 students with an total amount of money of 120,000 baths.