

Best Value for All @ Novotel Bangkok Platinum Pratunam's Sunday Brunch

What better way to spend the weekend than with a leisurely Sunday brunch? At Novotel Bangkok Platinum Pratunam, the better than ever Seafood Sunday Brunch is a great choice to indulge in a spectacular selection of seafood and international favourites.

Comfort and value for money meet in the warm and inviting ambiance of The SQUARE Restaurant, the perfect place to bring friends and family to enjoy a shared meal. Choose from the variety of fresh seafood on offer, which include oysters, NZ mussels, prawns, rock lobster, crab and Alaskan king crab served on ice or grilled to order at the live stations manned by our skilful chefs. Additional carving stations featuring rotating delicacies such as roasted lamb rack, roasted chicken, baked salmon and honey-glazed ham offer further treats to hungry buffet-goers. Explore the expanded grill section highlighting authentic German sausages, and treat yourself to pan-seared foie gras made to order, served in a brioche bun with balsamic sauce. Oven-fired pizzas and the made to order pasta station are perennial favourites, as well as the hotel's renowned Chinese section, featuring home-made dim sum and the signature trio of roast duck, BBQ pork, crispy pork belly. Other stations to choose from include a sushi section, comprehensive salad bar and tapas-style cold appetizers and traditional Thai station featuring fiery renditions of som tum, spicy salads and tom yum soup. Make sure to end the meal with some sweetness, for the SQUARE's dessert station is full of delightful house-made cakes, brownies, ice cream, traditional Thai desserts and spread of seasonal fruits.
