

Beyond Resort Khaolak wins Travel & Hospitality Beachfront Hotel of the Year award

Travel & Hospitality magazine, the globally respected guide to the best hotels and tour companies around the world, has named Beyond Resort Khaolak winner of the Beachfront Hotel of the Year 2018 for Phang Nga.

The hotel is owned and operated by Kata Group Resorts, a Phuket-based company that has seven resort properties in South Thailand, five of which are Beyond-branded resorts.

Beyond Resort Khaolak is an all-villa, adults-only resort, with no guests under the age of 18 years, and is located directly on the sands at Pakweep Beach.

Travel & Hospitality global awards honour the firms and individuals that have displayed excellence in a multitude of fields throughout the year, with nominations being submitted by subscribers, travel journalists, and those nominating through the publication's website. The publication is published in both digital and in printed form and is on display in the lobbies and public spaces of corporate offices around the world.
