Burasari Group Accepted Two Important Awards from THE WORLD BOUTIQUE HOTEL AWARDS

Burasari Group's Director of Sales and Marketing, Mr. Pieter Willaet, on behalf of Burasari Group, accepted two important awards from THE WORLD BOUTIQUE HOTEL AWARDS 2017. Shanghai Mansion Yaowaraj, Bangkok was named the Southeast Asia's Best City Boutique Hotel 2017. Additionally, Burasari Heritage Luang Prabang was awarded the Southeast Asia's Best Wellness Spa. The two awards are exceptionally important where boutique hotels owned and operated by Burasari Group, Thailand, have been awarded and established global reputation and recognition. THE WORLD BOUTIQUE HOTEL AWARD, among boutique hotels, is equal to the Academy Awards (Oscars) in the film industry. The award is organized to support and enhance the quality of the boutique hotels in each country in order to acquire an international standard. In 2017, there are more than 600 boutique hotels from 80 countries around the world joining the award.

At present, Burasari Group has been operating and managing 6 boutique hotels and resorts including (1) Burasari Patong, Phuket, (2) Burasari Heritage, Luang Prabang, (3) Sunset Villa, Luang Phrabang, (4) Café de Laos, Luang Prabang, (5) Twin Lotus, Koh Lanta, and (6) Shanghai Mansion, Yaowaraj Bangkok. All properties are well recognized by standards including (1) distinctive interior design to response the sophisticated relaxation and (2) exceptional and intuitive services of staffs. Moreover, spa services are also provided with fine selection of products from nature. Also, there are various creations of Spa Burasari's unique treatments by professional therapists, who have been trained constantly, to offer the ultimate relaxation experience for you.
