

Caltex Fuel Your School III Campaign

FOR RELEASE

Caltex Fuel Your School III Campaign

Salman Saadat, Country Chairman and General Manager - Products, Chevron (Thailand) Limited, marketer of Caltex brand recently signed the Memorandum of Understanding to fund "Caltex Fuel Your School III" Campaign with Piyabutr Cholvijarn, President of Kenan Institute of Asia (KIA) with aims to enhance the youth competency and broaden their education opportunities through innovative project-based learning process at the head quarter of Chevron (Thailand) Limited on Rama 3 Road, Bangkok.

"Caltex Fuel Your School III" is a CSR project that is continuously organized with an aim to focus on middle school students in 10 educational opportunity expansion schools in Ayutthaya province emphasizing in critical thinking, communication skills and systematic problem-based learning where students can relate subjects to the real world.

Seen in the pictures from left are Narong Iampongpaiboon, New Business Acquisition Manager, Boonyarit Srionkong, Policy Government and Public Affairs Manager, Salman Saadat, Country Chairman and General Manager - Products, Chevron (Thailand) Limited, Piyabutr Cholvijarn, KIA's President, John DaSilva, Director of Corporate Engagement and Marketing and Sawai Seesai, KIA's Senior Consultant - Innovative Education.