Also announced today is that NTT Ltd. in Thailand, Cambodia, Myanmar and Laos will be led by Sutas Kongdumrongkiat, CEO, Thailand for NTT Ltd. He will be responsible for making sure the country meets the ambitious objectives of NTT Ltd. and its clients. He reports to ASEAN CEO for NTT Ltd., Kim-Meng Png. Based in Singapore, Png will be responsible for the company's strategic development and operations across Singapore, Malaysia, Indonesia, Thailand, Vietnam, Cambodia, Laos, Myanmar and the Philippines. He reports to John Lombard, Asia Pacific CEO for NTT Ltd.

Manabu Kahara, who was previously President of NTT Communications (Thailand) Co., Ltd. has taken on a new responsibility as the Asia Pacific head for Japanese Multinational Companies.

When launched on 1 July 2019, NTT Ltd. brought together 40,000 people from brands, including Dimension Data, DTSI, Emerio, NTT Communications, NTT Security, and Training Partners into one company. NTT Ltd. will partner over 10,000 clients around the world, including leading organizations across financial services, pharmaceuticals, telecommunications, energy & utilities, manufacturing, automotive and technology sectors. In rebranding to NTT, NTT Ltd. in Thailand will be able to offer its clients an unparalleled range of skills and capabilities across many technologies.

The brands that will be combined over a phased period to form NTT Ltd. include; Arkadin, CAPSiDE, Communications Lifecycle Management (CLM), DPA, DTSI Group, Emerio, e-shelter, Euricom, e2y, Global IP Network (GIN), Gyron, Netmagic Solutions, NTT Communications Cloud Infrastructure Services (NTT Com CIS), NTT Communications Managed Services, NTT Global Networks, NTT Indonesia Nexcenter (NTTI Nexcenter), Oakton, RagingWire, Secure-24, SQL Services, Symmetry, Training Partners, Transatel, Viiew and WhiteHat Security.

As well as being able to offer more in-depth industry solutions for clients, NTT Ltd. in Thailand and the surrounding region, will benefit from NTT's innovation center in Japan as well as being able to make use of its full partnership network.

John Lombard, Asia Pacific CEO for NTT Ltd. commented, "We're delighted to launch the NTT brand in Asia Pacific, as various companies including Dimension Data, DTSI, Emerio, NTT Communications, NTT Security and Training Partners join the NTT Ltd. family."

"I'm also pleased to announce the appointment of Sutas Kongdumrongkiat as the CEO. He has been chosen to lead NTT Ltd. in Thailand, Cambodia, Myanmar and Laos based on his exceptional background and proven track records in the organization. I'm confident that under his capable leadership, we will become a leading services provider that can deliver intelligent, innovative solutions that address any of our clients' digital challenges worldwide."

Sutas added, "It's an honor to be leading NTT Ltd. in Thailand, Cambodia, Myanmar and Laos into this exciting new era. NTT is such a great, well-respected brand – and is doing amazing things for its clients and society in general. We're so proud to, as of today, offer local clients access to the NTT brand and its wealth and breadth of capabilities."

"With our strong track record and experience in providing ICT services plus professional managed service, the NTT group of companies have been delivering comprehensive ICT solutions including big data, cloud, network and security to serve the needs of our clients in the government and business sectors."

"The rebranding as NTT is a crucial step to drive the development of new innovations and enhance the delivery of ICT services to even more clients in Thailand, Cambodia, Myanmar and Laos, and with greater efficiency in the digital era. We are committed to continuously deliver the state-of-the-art solutions to support our clients' demands in all aspects. Together we do great things," he concludes.
