

Emporia Restaurant Wins Prestigious Design Award

Emporium Suites by Chatrium is extremely proud to announce that its beautiful restaurant, Emporia, has won the 2018-19 Asia Pacific Interior Design Award in the Leisure Interior Category at the prestigious International Property Awards in London.

Designed by That Is ITH Interior Co Ltd., Emporia won the award because of the quality of its design, construction and presentation. It has an invitingly hip and stylish décor that easily complements the delicious gastronomic fare on offer as well as the stunning bird's eye views of the thriving metropolis that is Bangkok.

The stunning interior of Emporia ensures that every meal transcends that of a mere meal to become a truly iconic event. Located a stone's throw away from the up and coming "EM District", where you can find Bangkok's renowned Emporium and EmQuartier shopping malls, and with direct and easy access to the BTS skytrain system at Phrom Phong Station right on the doorstep, a visit to Emporia is simply a must.

The in-vogue interior has been thoughtfully designed with the sole intention of acting as the perfect backdrop to the fantastic fare on offer, and whether you fancy a filling and fresh buffet breakfast, exquisite Cantonese fare, delicate homemade dim sum or something substantial from an irresistible choice of cuisine from the four corners of the culinary world, with Emporia Restaurant's gorgeous décor and deliciously diverse menu your meal is sure to be an event to remember.

First started in 1993, the International Property Awards are open to all properties from around the globe and they celebrate the highest levels of achievement in real estate internationally, from hotels and apartments through to restaurants. An International Property Award is a world-renowned mark of excellence recognized worldwide by industry experts and professionals.
