

Escape the heat this summer in Bangkok with The World's super-affordable Sunday brunches

If you've stepped outside lately in Bangkok, you've probably noticed that summertime has well and truly arrived. So, what better way to escape the heat (and give yourself to a little end-of-the-weekend treat) than indulge in a luxurious yet affordable Sunday brunch at The World restaurant!

Located on the 24th floor of Centara Grand at CentralWorld, our huge international, all-you-can-eat Sunday brunches comprise flavors and delectable dishes from all over the world.

Fans of curry and spicy veggie-based dishes will love our Indian corner; if fresh slices of raw salmon and tuna are your thing, head to our sushi and sashimi corner; meat-lovers can rejoice with our mouth-watering carvery; for pizza and pasta head to our Italian station; elsewhere, you'll find cooked-to-order noodles, fresh seafood-on-ice, a range of Thai and Asian cuisine, piping-hot dim sum, western a la carte dishes, a huge dessert bar and so much more!

We don't call it 'The World' for nothing...

You can enjoy all of this as part of our on-going weekly lineup of Sunday brunches, which run from 11.30 - 15.00 each and every Sunday. The price is THB 1,890++ per person with our sommelier's bottomless wine selection also included in this price.

Please also note that children aged between 4 and 11 receive a 50% discount on the buffet price and kids under 4-years-old eat for free.
