

FESTIVE SPECIALS WITH TRADITIONAL JAPANESE MEALS AT KISSO

In Japan, Christmas is the time for friends and couples to make plans to meet up for dinner and celebrate. Christmas Eve is actually the most romantic day of the year. It's the Japanese version of Valentine's Day. Japanese couples, especially the youngest, book dinner, the stores sell romantic Christmas gifts, and the streets are decorated to perfection to embody this most romantic day. New Year instead is the time of the year when all members of the family come together, with food and drinks. Spend both celebrations at Kisso Japanese Restaurant and join us for indulgent feasts and sparkling celebrations with your friends and family.

3-COURSE CHRISTMAS GOZEN MENU

Celebrate Christmas with a Japanese sense of occasion courtesy of Kisso's "Kurisumasu Gozen of the Year" menu. Kisso calls in Santa for a 3-course Gozen menu featuring the transcendent flavors and subtle succulence of fried ice fish & avocado salad; sashimi; and grilled wagyu beef, among others.
