

ITE set up the training of Basic Substation Automation System

ITE set up the training of Basic Substation Automation System

Mr. Charin Kulpraditsilp (Third from left) Vice President, Smart Substation, Italthai Engineering Company Limited (ITE) together with Mr. Liangfang Yin (Third from right) Product Manager and Mr. Kevin Zhang (Second from right) Key Account Director of Beijing Sifang Automation Company Limited (Sifang) organized Substation Automation System training for Provincial Electricity Authority's team lead by Mr. Panthong Thinsathit (Fourth from left) Director of Smart Grid Planning Division, Provincial Electric Authority. The training is a part of Italthai Engineering Company Limited's Smart Grid project in Pattaya, Chonburi which is the first pilot project of Provincial Electric Authority. Substation Automation including IEC 61850 compliant automatic substation supply and installation, the 3 days training was held at Italthai Engineering Company Limited's offices at the Italthai Tower.