

KTC organizes “Monrak...Khon Mae Klong” midyear event for an insightful new perspective into the history of Samut Songkhram

Mr. Rathian Srimongkol, President & Chief Executive Officer, “KTC” or Krungthai Card Public Company Limited, organized “Monrak...Khon Mae Klong” midyear event to reinstate Thai financial institutions that promote Thai art and culture through tourism activities. KTC invited the press to visit a less visited area, to experience stories of “Samut Songkhram,” Thailand’s smallest city brimmed with charm with three scholars and experts in arts and culture who shared their knowledge and took participants to watch the production of authentic coconut sugar, an important export product from the Ayudhya period at the Amphawa-Chaipattananurak Conservation Project. Participants also admired the architectural beauty that is not only consistent with the Samut Songkhram community, but also an indication of the identity of Mae Klong at Nativity of Our Lady Cathedral, Wat Bang Khae Yai, Wat Bang Khae Noi and Wat Bang Kung, recently.
