

Leading from the Heart at Bangkok's First Elevating Purpose Summit 2017

At the recent Elevating Purpose Summit 2017 at The Westin Grande Sukhumvit, Guillaume Gauthereau one of the world's most influential leaders in the realm of conscious business leadership shared with Thailand's top management leaders his methodology in creating a holistic work environment that overcomes today's corporate challenges. This year's speakers included David Passiak an author of three books, Kenneth Kam a visionary entrepreneur, author and philanthropist, Pattarapol Silapajarn, a successful actor and author of one of Thailand's bestselling personal finance books, as well as Topp Jirayat Srupsrisopa founder of Coins.co.th

"The highlight of the day was to be able to offer a shamanic drumming experience to Bangkok's top CEOs and entrepreneurs. For the first time, we brought discussions on purpose to the leaders of the business world in Thailand focusing on how to go from outer to inner leadership. We are planning to come back with a more comprehensive program next year due to the event's overwhelming success," says Guillaume Gauthereau.
