

Local Alike invites you to experience a day with the Chonburi's Takiantia Community

December 13th 2017-

This winter, Local Alike invites you to an extraordinary community experience with a trip to Takiantia Community, Chonburi Province, for "A Day as a Local Farmer" from 18-20 December 2017.

This one-day trip will let you appreciate the uniqueness of Takiantia community villagers who will introduce you to the world of coconut. Mixed with local wisdom and locally available resources, the ordinary coconut is transformed into something that brings value and smiles to the whole community. You'll learn how to grow coconuts, cook awesome dishes from coconut shell, go cycling and breathe in some fresh air, retreat to the coconut plantation and converse with coconut gurus and enjoy many other activities with the community members.

The "A Day as a Local Farmer" (1-day trip) is THB 2,250 per person and is available only during 18-20 December 2017. Book now at www.localalike.com or at the Sawasdee Craft booth (during Dec 14-17th 2017) at Wonderfruit Music Festival Pattaya and receive a special Local Alike bag for FREE.

About Local Alike

Local Alike is a social enterprise strongly focusing on community-based tourism. As we aim for sustainable development, community-based tourism has become one of the most powerful tools which can help people in local communities become self-sufficient. Local Alike truly believes in community-based tourism as we see great potential in every single local community. To Local Alike, a local community is nothing but a gem. Each local community possesses such valuable assets as culture, tradition and local wisdom which can never be found elsewhere. Undoubtedly, local communities will be capable of making the most of their way of living once equipped with knowledge and skills needed in community-based tourism which will eventually enable local people to afford a better quality of life.
