Marathon Escape to Anantara Layan Phuket Resort

Phuket, 30 May 2018: Known for its lush terrain and long beaches, Phuket is not the first place that comes to mind when thinking about running a marathon, but cool summer temperatures and direct flights from major cities such as Hong Kong, Singapore and Dubai, it's easy to understand why it's becoming a popular adventure sports destination.

On 10 June 2018, thousands of runners from around the world will descend on Phuket to take part in the award-winning Laguna Phuket Marathon, South East Asia's Leading Destination Marathon. Hosted at the Laguna Phuket Resort complex, a short drive from Anantara Layan Phuket Resort, it will offer runners multiple distances for all ages and abilities, including a children's race.

Anantara Layan Phuket Resort is offering the ultimate marathon package to prep, fuel and relax before and after the race in tranquil surroundings with the 'Phuket Marathon Escape'. The package includes a special room rate for runners, daily breakfast, late check out and a shuttle service to the race location on the day. And for those in need of some post-race healing, the package includes a deal on spa journeys to enjoy a massage and treat weary muscles, full details below.
