

New Year's Eve with a soft sea breeze

Sheraton Hua Hin Resort & Spa

Savor the final hours of 2017 and the dawn of a new chapter in an idyllic seaside setting while serving yourself indulgent helpings of delicious dishes and drinks.

As the ocean laps the seashore and stars sparkle in the sky, share a kaleidoscopic variety of recipes, ready-to-go and prepared to order at vibrant live cooking stations.

Each section offers tantalizing possibilities. Sesame seared tuna and char-grilled beef feature among the several salads. The masterfully curated selections continue with antipasto such as smoked salmon and Italian cold-cuts.

For the party-goer to whom seafood is glee-food, the crustacean station offers a mountainous display of iced shellfish, including but not limited to New Zealand mussels, blue swimmer crabs, rock lobsters and river prawns. Indulge those seafood cravings further with freshly-shucked international oysters with specialist condiments. Not to mention meticulously prepared sushi and sashimi, including nigari and maki rolls, on the Japanese station.

Exquisite soups range wild mushroom & truffle to lobster bisque scented with cognac, after which it's time to survey the carvery where succulent Australian grain-fed rib eye of beef is carved to perfection. All adjacent to the BBQ station sizzling rock lobster, salmon, honey-soy sea bass wrapped in banana leaf, seafood kebabs, Australian grain-fed beef striploin and much more to specified degree of rarity.

If all this isn't enough, there are also uncountable specialty options to populate under-loaded plates, from roasted duck breast on sautéed mushrooms with port wine jus to stir-fried soft shell crab with curry powder and many more.

And yet finding room for dessert won't be an issue with decadent temptations such as white chocolate éclair, vanilla crème brûlée and strawberry cream cheesecake bidding for attention, along with yet another live station offering caramelized fruits flamed with dark rum that go brilliantly with homemade ice creams and sorbets.

What a way to build up to a bold countdown and fireworks to welcome 2018 in the finest seaside style!
