

Novotel Phuket Phokeethra and Ibis Styles Phuket City provides OFO bikes for you to enjoy Old Phuket Town

November 2017, Phuket- Novotel Phuket Phokeethra and ibis Styles Phuket City's management team, led by General Manager Cedric Besler, is pleased to invite all travel enthusiasts to explore the rich history and beauty of Sino-Portuguese architecture that captures the lifestyle and culture of Phuket. Guests can spend time enjoying the best beaches of Phuket, while indulging in a variety of cuisines around the city. Both hotels also provide a special QR CODE for guests to scan and unlock a yellow bicycle called "OFO" to cycle around the city.

The bike tour begins at Novotel Phuket Phokeethra and goes to Surin Clock's circle, the oldest circle in Phuket Town. Next, guests will bike to Bang Niew Shirn to pray for prosperity, followed by a visit to Saphan Hin, one of Phuket's popular landmarks. The last stop would be Thalang Road, the central street of a charming old town. The quaint, narrow boulevard is studded with numerous attractions, including an eclectic mix of restaurants, small guesthouses and countless shopping stores. All are housed in the beautiful Sino-Portuguese architecture that makes Phuket a vibrant tourist destination.

Novotel Phuket Phokeethra provides 20 OFO bikes, while ibis Styles Phuket City provides 10 OFO bikes, for travellers who enjoy exploring the city on a cycle.
