

Outrigger Konotta Maldives Resort Announces Easter 2019 Activities for Families and Couples

MALE, MALDIVES – Outrigger Konotta Maldives Resort has announced special activities for Easter 2019. Apart from two special dinners by award-winning German chef Eyck Zimmer, the luxury resort in the pristine south of the Maldives will hold special events 19-22 April.

Guests can expect family activities such as Pirates of the Ocean Saga, Easter egg hunt and races, and open-air movies. Adults can enjoy a castaway experience, hydro pool relaxation, sunrise yoga, romantic sunset cruises, and delicious themed dining nights: Asian, hot pot, mezze/Arabic, Indian, beach barbecues, and more.

For nature lovers, the resort will arrange a special kayak island tour, snorkelling explorations, a turtle quest, a marine talk at the OZONE hut, and a visit to a Maldivian village.

In its special “out of the ordinary” activities, guests can choose from an Equator cruise, safari on a sandbank, a castaway experience, renewal of vows for couples, sunken beach table dining, and cooking classes on Maldivian, Indian, Japanese or Sri Lankan cuisine.

On the island, guests should look out for Outrigger’s “Easter Experts” – executive chef Christopher Long, yoga and fitness instructor Bejay Kumar, kids’ club attendants Reena and Rasshfa, and drinks mixologist, Walter Palk. The Easter Bunny will be prominent on Konotta island too.

“Easter and the school holiday weeks around it in April are an ideal opportunity for families and couples to take time out and relax together in a pristine beach-island setting,” says John Allanson, the GM of the property. “A few days with Outrigger in the Maldives in April will put body and soul in shape for the rest of the year.”

Last-minute bookings are available at Outrigger.com or via your preferred travel agent. Or email: reservation.konotta@outrigger.mv.
