

Royal Wing Suites and Spa Named Asia's Top Leisure Hotel by Now Travel Asia

Chengdu, China - The Royal Wing Suites and Spa shone bright along with Asia's best and finest as it was awarded "Asia's Top Leisure Hotel" at the spectacular Now Travel Asia Awards gala ceremony in Chengdu, China. Hotel industry players, top chefs, restaurateurs and leading business influencers came together to be part of the glamorous celebration held in the splendid spice capitol. It was a sparkling evening of glam, glitz and entertainment that directed the spotlight to the crème de la crème of the global honored hotel industry and celebrated industry leaders and tourism influencers across the hospitality, food & beverage and tourism sectors in Asia.

Shining among the jewels, the Royal Wing Suites and Spa took the top honours at the glittering award ceremony cementing its reputation and standing as the best of its class in Asia's luxury travel industry for its personalized guest experiences and hospitality flair.

Mr. Vitanart Vathanakul, the CEO of the Royal Cliff Hotels Group, was delighted with Royal Wing's reputation for continued excellence. "NOW Travel Asia awards are held in high regard and it is an immense honor for Royal Cliff Hotels Group to receive recognition for our legendary Asian hospitality here. We are pleased that Royal Cliff's passion for service, luxury and excellence have not escaped the attention of our renowned peers and have been recognized by an industry that holds an overwhelming impact when it comes to creating beautiful experiences in people's lives. It has been such a rewarding experience to represent Thailand in the international stage and show the world a taste of Thai hospitality."

The much-anticipated evening marked the climax of a three-day itinerary that included a Thailand-China Travel Industry Forum and Business Matching session where Mr. Vathanakul also presented the portfolio of the iconic hotels group.
