

THAI Smile temporarily suspends all domestic flights Effective from 7 to 30 April 2020.

THAI Smile temporarily suspends all domestic flights Effective from 7 to 30 April 2020.

The current COVID-19 situation has prompted the government to step up measures to further contain the virus' spread. Due to the existing airline's measures and the government's restrictions to mass transport services which can increase the risks of COVID-19 infection, THAI Smile therefore significantly needs to announce the zero operation which means suspending all domestic and international flights with effect from 7 - 30 April 2020, and we will be back in the air on May 1, 2020 or until further notice. THAI Smile facilitates passengers affected by the flight cancellation as follows:

- For EDM Full Refund Request, passengers can obtain a full refund without any charges by yourselves via <https://member.thaismileair.com/customerservice/refund> by selecting "Refund due to terms and Conditions"
- Passengers who would like to change a travel itinerary and/or reroute can do so without paying a change fee. Terms and conditions apply.
