

THAT'S ENTERTAINMENT III Kamala Sukosol's Annual Concert for Charity

17/18/19 August, 2017 at The Sukosol, Bangkok

Sukosol Entertainment, the Thai Red Cross Society and Singha Corporation is proud to present That's Entertainment III, Kamala Sukosol's annual charity concert, with all income generated being donated to the Princess Sirindhorn Craniofacial Center providing critical healthcare to underprivileged Thai children suffering from severe facial deformities.

Kamala Sukosol, Thailand's First Lady of Jazz & Swing and singer of the smash hit "Live & Learn", will be performing an entertaining and eclectic selection of songs, including memorable hits from classic Broadway musicals to the latest Hollywood soundtracks.

As always, this is a family concert featuring the extraordinary talents of Kamala's children, Marisa, Sukie, Noi (Krissada), and grandchildren Natalia, Dino and Finnegan.

This year's songlist includes performances from the Broadway musical Aladdin, City of Stars from the Oscar-winning movie La La Land, as well as family favourites from recent Disney hits Beauty and the Beast and Moana, plus 2017's most popular song Shape of You by Ed Sheeran. And the whole family will perform Hope, a new song written for the Craniofacial Center and featuring more than 30 singers and musicians. Noi will also debut a brand new single from his upcoming album.

There will be a tribute from Singin' in the Rain to Debbie Reynolds, one of Kamala's favourite performers, who sadly passed away just one day after the tragic death of her daughter Carrie Fisher (Princess Leia from Star Wars).

Look out too for a medley of "River" songs including Moon River, Cry Me a River, and a special tribute to honour the importance of Bangkok's own Chao Phraya, with Marisa singing her rendition of Loom Chao Phraya plus a new song from Kamala titled River Blues. We will also pay our deepest respects to HM King Bhumibol Adulyadej by performing a selection of his compositions to honour his memory.

As always, each performance is supported by Bangkok's finest big band orchestra under the direction of Piti Kayoonpan, with regular special guest Dolchai Boonyaratavej, and the breathtaking dancing skills of the talented students from the Aree School of Dance Arts. Tanee Poonswan will conduct the fantastic chorus, as well as performing in the show.

Join us for a world-class, fast-paced show full of entertainment, knowing that the price of your tickets is being donated to make a huge difference in the lives of underprivileged Thai children affected by severe facial deformities through the Craniofacial Center of the Thai Red Cross Society.

Tickets on August 17th and 19th are Baht 2,500/2,000/1,500/1,000 and 500 for students.
Tickets for the Gala Dinner on August 18th are Baht 40,000/45,000 per table of 10 guests.
Tickets are on sale at The Sukosol, please call 0 2247-0123 for bookings.