(BANGKOK, THAILAND, 16 November 2018): The Grand Luang Prabang Hotel has won the World Luxury Award for Luxury Wellness Retreat 2018.

“With its idyllic riverfront setting, rich cultural heritage and charming colonial design, The Grand Luang Prabang Hotel is an alluring destination for all types of traveler,” “We are delighted to be recognized with this coveted award after only having been open a matter of months.” remarked Mr. Franck Delen, General Manager.

The former estate of Prince Phetsarath Ratanavongsa, the first Prime Minister of Laos, The Grand Luang Prabang Hotel is a charming villa set on the banks of the Mekong River, just 4 km from the UNESCO World Heritage-listed heart of Luang Prabang.

Designed in a classical French style with Lao touches, the hotel is steeped in colonial charm. The 75 spacious rooms are adorned with dark wooden furniture, parquet floors, shuttered windows and private balconies or terraces, while the hotel’s two restaurants - Xiengkeo and Le Bistrot - focus on authentic, artisanal cuisine, including classical Lao, Asian and international dishes.
