

The Parkinson Band Gave the Crowd the Shakes at Maggie Choo's

On the night of Thursday, 22th June, Maggie Choo's saw a packed crowd attending a mini concert by The Parkinson, a Thai pop & soul 3-member band who have gained great popularity in recent years. Their top hit records, like 'Cha Bok Ter Wa Rak' (Gonna Say that I Love You), 'Mod Kaew' (Bottom Up) and 'Phuen Rak' (My Buddy), got their fans and the crowd irresistably moving and grooving along with the rhythm, in an uncontrollable way just like the band's namesake disease. Stay tuned for the next mini concert of your favorite artists and musicians and the schedule of good fun at Facebook/maggiechoos.