

The World's Sunday Brunch brings you all-you-can-eat international flavors - for just THB 1890++

Wherever you are in the world, Sundays are all about taking it easy, relaxing with family or friends, and tucking into some great food (all while trying not to think about work the next day...)

While Bangkok doesn't have the same roast dinner traditions as many places in the Western World, what the city is well-known for is its Sunday brunches - meaning you can enjoy that well-earned morning lie-in and still have time to satisfy those breakfast-slash-lunch food cravings when you wake up!

And no matter what those food cravings are, the luxurious Sunday Brunch Buffet at The World restaurant is sure to fix them. Priced at just THB 1,890++ (inclusive of free-flow red and white wine selections), this is also one of the most affordable Sunday brunches you'll find in the capital.

As the name suggests, you'll find flavors from all over the world, including Thai, Chinese, Indian, Japanese, Italian & Mediterranean and other international treats.

And for that Sunday roast fix? Head straight to our carving station, with fresh slices of beef, pork, fish and other meats served up piping hot to your plate - with all the extras available like potatoes, greens and gravy!

The World Sunday Brunch also includes a menu of cooked-to-order a la carte dishes and has a seafood-on-ice bar.

Sunday brunches at The World restaurant run every week from 11.30 - 15.00. For more information or to make reservations, call us on: 0-2100-6255 or email: diningcgcw@chr.co.th
