

TMB hosts “FAI-FAH ART FEST 2018: The Beauty of Ordinary Kids” to showcase the talents of youth

Mr. Piti Tantakasem, Chief Executive Officer of TMB (6th from left), is honored to open “FAI-FAH ART FEST 2018: The Beauty of Ordinary Kids, showcase activity about artworks, products, and performances by young FAI-FAH members to give regular young people an opportunity to demonstrate their talents, show their development empowered by the FAI-FAH centers, as well as find their own standing place proudly in society. In addition, certificates will also be awarded to young members of the FAI-FAH Project who have completed art and other life skill courses over the past three years at TMB Headquarters on Phahonyothin Road.