

Unithai Shipyard earns 2016 National Safety Award

Mr. Teerapon Udomkanjananan, Managing Director of Unithai Shipyard and Engineering Ltd, has represented the company to receive 2016 National Safety Award from Deputy Director - General of Department of Labour Protection and Welfare, Mr. Ananchai Uthaiattanachep.

The award presentation has been taken place at Bangkok International Trade and Exhibition Center, on 2 July.

From a thousand of industries nationwide, Unithai Shipyard and Engineering Limited has been recognised by the Department as one of the best industries with outstanding performance in compliance with the standard for administration and management of occupational safety, health, and environment.

Unithai Shipyard's efforts in these areas are being constantly assessed with an eye to continued improving health, safety, security and environmental aspects for operational excellent. All employees and subcontractors have fully committed to related rules and regulations, in contributing toward the motto 'Safety is everyone's responsibility'.

Unithai combines professional health, safety, security and environmental training with its production activities to ensure that employee health, safety, security and environmental protection are central to the Group culture and enhance to wider communities.

The National Safety Award, has annually organised by the Department of Labour Protection and Welfare, with aiming to reduce risks and raise all industrial sectors awareness of safety measures. The awards will be presented to the industries where demonstrate best practices in accordance with the standard of the Department of Labour Protection and Welfare.