

V-Gulliver's 4th branch opened in Samut Prakan

V-Gulliver's 4th branch opened in Samut Prakan

V-Gulliver Company Limited, an affiliate of Japan's No.1 used car firm, recently opened its 4th showroom, Gulliver Samut Prakan which was operated by Novil (Thailand) Corporation, a subsidiary of Gulliver Japan's franchisee Novil.

Novil (Thailand) Corporation has invested 30 million baht in the branch which is located on three rai of land with parking capacity of 150 car parking and it sets sales target of 50 cars a month. During the opening period starting from early March to the middle of March, it holds a Japanese traditional cultural event - Matsuri - to all customers attended the showroom with special discount of 20,000 Baht and some free services.

Seen Mr. Hiroki Hisaoka (5th right) with company's management members and staff jointly presided over the showroom grand opening.