

Vietjet to add an extra daily round trip to Singapore - Ho Chi Minh City route

Vietjet has announced plans to increase the frequency of its international route linking Ho Chi Minh City and Singapore since 30 May 2015.

Vietnam's fastest growing carrier, Vietjet will add an extra daily round trip to meet growing demand for low-cost air travel between the two hubs.

With two round trips per day, the route will have a capacity of 5,040 seats per week offering Vietjet's passengers even more choices when planning their travel itinerary.

The new schedule will now see Vietjet flights depart Tan Son Nhat International Airport in Ho Chi Minh City at 8.55am and 2.00pm (Vietnam time). Coming in the other direction, flights will depart Changi international airport every day at 1.50pm and 6.00pm (Singapore time). The flight duration is around two hours and five minutes.

Tickets can now be booked and purchased via www.vietjetair.com (also compatible on mobile phones) or by clicking on www.facebook.com/vietjetairvietnam (look for the "Booking" tab). Customers can also book tickets by visiting their nearest VietJet ticket outlet or calling 1900 1886.

In accordance with the airline's expansion plans, Vietjet will welcome more brand new, Airbus jets to its fleet this September. The airline currently operates 28 domestic and international routes with a fleet of 21 Airbus aircraft.

To fulfil the promise of its slogan "Enjoy Flying!" every Vietjet aircraft features a comfy leather-covered seat so passengers can sit back, relax and order one of nine delicious hot meals, served by the airline's famously fun and friendly flight attendants. An extensive snack menu is also available on every flight.

Furthermore, passengers can purchase souvenirs from the in-flight Vietjet boutique or select luxury goods from the duty free shop, now available on all international flights.
