

Women's Economic Empowerment Global Learning Forum

Bangkok, Thailand, June 14th 2017 - BrandNow.asia and BNOW.org's Co-founder Pacharee Pantoomano Pfirsch (middle) recently moderated a debate with six international speakers on the topic, "Market Programming for Economic Growth Should Address Women's Unpaid Care Work" at the Women's Economic Empowerment Global Learning Forum held at Amari Watergate Hotel, Bangkok.

The Forum, convened by SEEP, welcomed 350 participants from 61 countries representing 159 organizations. It brought together leading stakeholders in the field of women's economic empowerment to facilitate dialogue, build global learning connections, and promote effective policy and practice to address the needs of vulnerable women all around the world.
