

Zing Bakery is going mooncake mad to celebrate this year's ongoing Moon Festival!

You may well have noticed a lot of mooncakes being sold in the malls, restaurants and hotels all over Bangkok lately. No, this isn't the latest dessert trend in Thailand, but actually an annual occurrence that celebrates the ancient Chinese 'Moon Festival'!

To mark this event, which reaches its peak on September 24, Zing Bakery, Centara Grand at CentralWorld is offering its own range of luxurious mooncakes in a wide variety of different colors and flavors from now - 24 September.

Starting at just THB 118 for one piece, you can come in to try one of our chocolate, green tea, red bean and lotus seed or coconut varieties. We also have the slightly more adventurous 'monthong durian mooncake', as well as the 'monthong durian with egg' for those that enjoy the bold taste (and smell) of this exotic fruit.

For those wanting to save money and take a few home for friends and family, Zing Bakery also provides mooncake boxes priced at THB 788 for 4 pieces or THB 488 for 2 pieces and a kids box. Want to buy in bulk? Then receive a 10% and free delivery when you purchase 50 boxes or more (offer applies to both 4-piece with box and 2-piece with kids box).

You can find Zing Bakery located on the ground floor of Centara Grand at CentralWorld.
